

Chatbot Architecture Guide

This guide explains how the chatbot is built using FastAPI, OpenAI, and Retrieval-Augmented Generation (RAG). The system uses session-based memory to isolate conversations and vector embeddings to retrieve relevant documents.

Key technologies include FastAPI for the backend API, FAISS for vector search, and OpenAI embeddings for semantic retrieval.